CSI-NEW ENGLAND

BEGINNING
JANUARY 2010

With all the popularity of the CSI television shows, it's time to find out some of the methods used by famous forensic scientists. We've scheduled a CSI symposium where the scientists will demonstrate and explain their methods using weapons and some key body parts. Unfortunately, you never know who might be murdered in the midst of a forensic demonstration surrounded by police. Join us for a night of fun, and help us solve the crimes you witness. You may be a deputized CSI agent by the end of the night.
